Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. Lantis Plumley and children, Spencer, David and Lana of Lindsey, Oklahoma are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sinclair of Midway and Mrs. Fanny Plumley of Hope.

Miss Owen, Mr. Franklin Are Married in Gallatin, Tenn.,

Wearing an elaborate gown of ivory shadow lace over matching satin, Miss Ruth Penn Owen became the bride of Robert Draper Franklin Jr., of Huntsville, Ala., at a ceremony Saturday evening January 28, at the First Presbyterian Church in Gallatin.

The bride, a graduate of Vanderbilt University, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter Owen Jr., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Draper Franklin of Hope.

As the guests arrived, a program of music was presented by Mrs. W. W. Warmath of Humboldt, Tennessee an aunt of the bride, organist, and Mrs. John S. Franklin, vocalist. The Rev. Lowell A. Van Patten, pastor of the church, read the marriage vows at 8 o'clock. Groupings of woodwardia and Kentia palms on the altar interspersed with scores of candles in single and branched holders formed the background for the white turns filled with white chrysanthemums. The pews were marked with white chrysanthemums tied with white streamers and smilax.

Mr. Owen gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was distinguished by a yoke of illusion with falling back on boisterous pie-in-the-face routines. So far Jean has heroically resisted this easy way out.

"I have an aversion to seeing a woman make a buffoon of herself on the stage," she said.

Her stubbornness had paid off. Jean started by winning a $5 first prize at the age of 13 in a New Britain, Conn., amateur night contest. Now she earns up to $10,000 a week and has an annual income in the sixfigure racket. For the benefit of those who hate counting on their fingers, this is upward of $100,000.

Jean has often teamed with appliques of lace at the shoulder line, a moulded bodice and petal pointed sleeves. The very full skirt of the lace was accented by panels of the satin extending into a cathedral train. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a shell cap of matching lace. The bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. William A. Bell of Hazelhurst, Miss., attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Martha McBride of Lewisburg, Tenn., Mrs. Desmond Kidd, Austin, Texas, Miss Caroline Chobot of Chattanooga, and Mrs. Susie Tyson. They wore identical ballerina dresses of Mediterranean blue velvet fashioned with deep oval necklines, long torso moulded bodices and bracelet-length sleeves. Their chataine bouquets were of Strellizer and verigated ivy leaves.

Susan Sammons of Huntsville, the flower girl, wore a short white organdy frock with insertions of lace and embroidery. She carried a miniature bouquet similar to those carried by the bride's attendants.

Mr. Franklin was his son's best man and groomsmen were William A. Franklin Jr., and Lewis A. Green of Gallatin, William A. Bell of Hazelhurst, and Dr. Robert A. Sammons of Huntsville.

Others completing the personnel of the wedding party were Richard Carter Owen III, brother of the bride, and Ralph Saunders of Hope.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Owen chose a sheath of silver gray brocade and bronze accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of brown orchids.

Mrs. Franklin was attired in a haze blue dress of French imported lace made with long torso lines with which she wore matching accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Owen entertained 500 guests at a reception at Bluegrass Country Club. Woodwardia fern and white chrysanthemums were used throughout the club and the bride's table was decorated with a wedding cake encircled with gardenias and string smilax flanked by burning white tapers in silver candelabra.

Later in the evening, Mr. Franklin and his bride left for a wedding trip to New Orleans after which they will be at home at 1438 Brandon Ave., in Huntsville. For traveling, the bride wore an azure blue wool sheath dress with matching jacket trimmed in silk braid and matching accessories.

outpost across the forbidding Bering Strait from Soviet Siberia.

The two men riding with Noyes and Kolb, Sgt. Richard August of Nome, the mechanic, and Maj. Francis Siegwart, commander of the Alaska National Guard's 1st Scout Battalion here, started the long walk from the crash scene to Nome Sunday two days after the plane crashed.

They were spotted from the air and intercepted on the ground such male counterparts as Milton Berle, Joe E. Lewis, Jack Benny, Jimmy Durante and Bob Hope.

"They don't mind working with women," she remarked. "It's all in the day's job with them."

She does admit to a slight feeling of envy for the wider freedom male comics enjoy.

"They can imitate a woman taking a bath or removing a girdle, and everyone will think it is howlingly funny."

"But the reverse isn't true. If I imitated a man taking a bath it would be unfeminine. People would be asking each other, 'well, how did she find that out—she been peeking through keyholes?'"

The humorous range for comedienne—at least ladylike comedienne—she said, was limited largely to such topics as house hold matters, family situations, progressive education, and the eternal war between men and women. Her own best-known monologic topics include "buying a mink coat," "A day at the race track," and "Bringing up her daughter."

"But the restrictions aren't too bad," she observed. "Because actually the simplest situations in life—situations which everyone can recognize because they may have shared in them themselves—are still the funniest."

"Children are the funniest things in the world, simply because they are so uninhabited and unselfconscious."

Jean confidently predicts the rise soon of many more feminine stars in the field of comedy.

ologic topics include "buying a tremendous sense of humor," she said, and smilingly added:

"They've had to, in order to cope with their precocious children—and husbands."

shortly after a Civil Air Patrol plane piloted by Phillip Lancaster of Nome located Noyes' downed craft.

Siegwart was uninjured. August was suffering extreme exposure.

Lancaster and his flying companion Martin Olson landed their light craft at the top of the plateau-like mountain and were soon joined by Bill Munz, another bush pilot, and Nome druggist Boyd Harwood, in another plane.

Two Paramedics summoned by radio administered first aid to Noyes and Kolb. Then, with a slip meaning a tumble of yards, the three bush pilots and Harwood started a tortuous journey to the summit of the mountain with the injured men on stretchers.

From the top of the mountain the two injured men were flown to Nome.

SMU Could Go Into Lead With Win Tonight

By The Associated Press

The Southern Methodist Mustangs hope to gallop over the Baylor Bears at Waco tonight for a clear cut lead in the current Southwest Conference basketball race.

Right now the Ponies, with a 4-0 conference record, are tied in the loop race with the Arkansas Razorbacks. A victory over Baylor would put the Mustangs in the lead over the Porkers whose first game of the week is against Texas Christian Horned Frogs at Fort Worth tomorrow night.

The Ponies proved they hadn't grown rusty during the final examination layoff by trampling the Frogs, 105-64 last Saturday night. Undefeated this season by a Southwest Conference team, the Ponies now have a 14-2 season mark.

The Bears are way down the conference ladder in fifth spot. They have a 1-3 conference record and a season of 4-11.

Texas, well entrenched in the loop cellar, took an 80-78 victory over West Texas State College at Canyon last night while the Texas Aggies bowed, 76-56, to Oklahoma City University at Oklahoma City. Both were non-conference games.

Controlling the backboards with their superior height, the Longhorns had little trouble in taking their second victory of the season over the Buffaloes. Raymond Downs paced the winners with 22 points, 10 via the free throw route. The Buffaloes' rookie Rogers was high point man of the game with 28 points.

The Aggies led in the first 10 minutes of their game but once they took control, the Oklahoma City Chiefs steadily built up their lead to coast to an easy victory. Hubert Reed, the Chiefs' 6-foot-10 center, was high man of the game with 23 points. Bill Brophy and Ken Huto paced the Aggies with 15 points apiece.

American Girls Far Ahead in Skating Event

By TED SMITS

CORTINNA D'AMPEZO, Italy — Tenley Albright, a poised 20-year-old New England girl who whipped polio to become the world's best woman figure skater, increased her lead over teammate Carol Heiss today in the Winter Olympic Games.

After four figures of the compulsory phase of the competition, Tenley and the 16-year-old Miss Heiss were far out in front. America appeared sure to win a gold medal here when free skating winds up the competition Thursday.

Meanwhile, Syre Stenersen, a 26-year-old veteran, retained Norway's monopoly in the Nordic combined skiing championship. Austria's Toni Sailer, shooting for his second championship of the games, took an early lead in the men's special slalom and Oleg Goncharenko, Russia's former world champion, smashed the olympic record in the 10,000 meter speed skating race.

Brooks Dodge, a 26-year-old engineer from Corham, N. H., was a surprise third in the special slalom behind Sailer, who earlier captured the giant slalom.

Sailer, a handsome 21-year-old plumber, whipped down the course in 1 minute, 27.3 seconds for his first of two runs. He was closely followed by Adrien Duvillard of France in 1:27.5 and Dodge in 1:27.6.

At the high Misurina Course, where the Russians already have swept three speed-skating titles, Goncharenko, a powerfully-built young man of 24, clipped 3.5 seconds from the Olympic 10,000 meter 6 miles, 378 yards mark set by defending champion Hjalmar Andersen of Norway at Oslo in 1952 in speeding over the track in 16 minutes, 42.3 seconds. The Norwegian also holds the world record of 16:32.6.

Stenersen, giving Norway its second gold medal, drove through the Ampezo Valley in the 15 kilometer 9 miles, 560 yards cross country race in 56 minutes, 10 seconds. The Nordic championship is determined on ski jumping, which was held earlier, and the cross country.

The sturdy young Norwegian had finished second to Russia's Vry Moschkin in the jumping half of the competition Sunday.

Miss Albright, showing no ill effects from her recent leg injury, was favored by eight of 11 judges in her negotiation of the fourth of five school figures.

There are five compulsory figures in figure skating, which counts 60 per cent of the competition. Free skating counts 40 per cent in the final figuring.

Of total points Tenley led the field with 84.9 to 83.1.

Well behind the Americans were Ingrid Wendt of Austria, 79.9 and England's Yvonne Sudgen, 78.3.

Oaklawn Purse to Be Increased

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Purse paid at Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs will be increased to a record high of $376,500 for the 31-day horse racing meet which opens here Feb. 25.

Track officials announced the increase last night following a meeting with representatives of the Horseman's Benevolent Protective Association. The previous record was $364,500 last year.

In addition to 9-race cards on Saturday, the track also will run nine races on each Wednesday of the 5-week meeting. Minimum purse of $1,700.

Oaklawn also announced that the $2,800 allowance race which usually features opening day will be changed to a $3,000 test to be known as the Inaugural Handicap.

Thomason Is Named Coach at Texarkana

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — A fiery Arkansas football coach who overcame a deficit in size to advance from intramural sports to a starting position on two Razorback football teams is the new football coach at Texarkana High School.

The border city's School Board last night chose Joe Thomason to succeed Bobby Ellen, who quit last season after his team dropped nine games while winning only three.

Supt. W. M. Locke said Thomason was notified of the appointment by telephone last night and accepted it. The 20-year-old defensive wizard doesn't graduate from the university until June, and will report for duty in August.

The Texarkana job is a plum among the state's high school coaching position. The school team also known as the Razorbacks, is a member of the Big Eight Conference, which embraces Arkansas' largest high schools.

Thomason, a native of Hot Springs, didn't get a football scholarship to enter Arkansas, but coaches who saw him playing intramural football as a freshman recruited him for the Razorback varsity. He won his first letter under former Coach Bowden Wyatt as a sophomore, and second string wingback, in 1953.

When the 1954 season opened, Thomason was the starting wingback and held down the job throughout the season, in which Arkansas won the Southwest Conference championship. Last year, he was a starting halfback in new Coach Jack Mitchell's split T formation.

Thomason, who weighs only 165, won a reputation as an excellent blocker and pass receiver who also was dangerous as a runner in spot duty. But, the swiftly really won his spurs as a defensive player. He had few, if any, peers on the Razorback squad as a pass defense man.

Memphis State Downs Indians

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The Arkansas State Indians, usually a high-scoring team, lost their shooting eye last night, and dropped their second game of the season to Memphis State, the Nation's 16th basketball team in the Associated Press rankings.

With Win Wilfong pouring in 21 points in the first half and Forest Arnold netting 23 for the game, the Tigers assumed control after the first 10 minutes and won at will 97-67.

Wilfong fouled out early in the second half and didn't tally a point in that period. Arnold's brother, Orby, took up the slack with 15.

Arkansas State hit only 21 of 60 field goal attempts and lost the battle of the backboards to the

Dons Cling to Top Spot in Cage Poll

By HUGH FULLERTON R. Of The Associated Press The San Francisco Dons, who remained undefeated through Saturday's battle of the Dons Freeze against California and a new record for college basketball winning streaks, seem to just as thoroughly installed at top of the basketball rankings.

After winning their 40th straight game—and their 14th this season by the unusual score of 33-24, Dons scored 1,337 points in the isolated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters to tight their hold on the No. 1 rank.

San Francisco received 90 first place votes out of 148 ballots, 34 for second place. Fewer than dozen unbelievers dared put Dons lower than fourth.

Poh were scored on the usual basis 10 for first, 9 for second, etc.

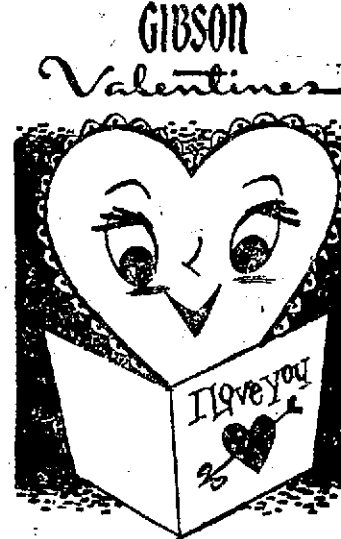

Dayton's Flyers, who suffered their first defeat after winning straight, held onto second place ahead of upsurging Vanderbilt.

While Dayton was losing, Louisville, 66-64 in overtime, Vanderbilt's Commodores turned in decisive 81-73 decision over Kentucky and St. Louis University beat Cincinnati by an impressive 104-86 score.

Tulsa Tigers. Gerald Chapple scored 15 points to lead Arkansas State's attack. Frank Proctor got 14 and Bill Glin collected 10.
